About Ricky...

Ricky YOUNG has lived 5 years in Lille both as a professional in international higher education and a student. During his stay, he travelled to different parts of France and neighbouring countries to appreciate the culture and to savour the local cuisine. He has also established a hobby of attending lunch time cooking classes on a weekly basis and has learned more than 100 recipes over two years. Ricky has recently returned to Hong Kong and is now working at the Career Development Office of HKU Faculty of Business and Economics.

About Kitty...

After graduated from HKU and 4 years Government service, Kitty studies French language and Master in Management at HEC in Paris. She worked in France, Singapore, China and Hong Kong in culture, arts, education and research. Kitty is the Founding President of French Alumni Association (2003-2011). Kitty gave public lectures on French culture and education at Hong Kong Museum of History ("Napoleon Bonaparte : Emperor and Man" Exhibition in 2003 and "The French Revolutions" Exhibition in 2008). She received cookery training from age of 12 and keeps her passion in cooking. She is a freelance French-English-Chinese interpreter for Chinese and International Cuisine at VTC.
